

EDISUN - COLLISION

Edisun returns to its indie alternative roots on its sophomore album Collision, while remaining true to its original sound that attracted fans at the start. The new album ranges from melodic rock songs Pins and Needles, Kill Me With Your Kiss, and Farewell to the dark acoustic-number Vampires and Wolves. Secrets is a nod to the influence of 90's alternative bands like Jane's Addiction and 70's rock Led Zeppelin. Ocean Waves is a textural and moody mix of piano/synth/guitar and lyrics which Edisun fans have identified with keeping hope in the fight against depression, a dynamic contrast to the charging rock anthem Ready to Believe.

A song penned by Madison, WI-singer Ethan Isaac-- Into the Sunlight about his experiences in NYC on 9-11 caught the ears of Armed Forces Entertainment, which invited the songwriter and his former band Wooden to tour for American troops over seas; Ethan continued this with Edisun; it's first tours as a band were in the deserts of Iraq and Afghanistan. With guitarist Joel Kelley, drummer Todd Budich, and bassist Michael Russo, Edisun has to date performed in 25 countries. The Ultra DIY group has toured extensively in the US as well, logging several hundred thousand miles in their band owned vintage 1977 MCI, former-Greyhound tour bus.
